

Refuge

Rain Taylor, known as Doc, to her therapy clients at the domestic violence shelter where she volunteers, has a calling to help broken women. Opening her home, known as the Brownstone, she unknowingly risks her own safety for the sake of her boarders. The four women who share her home will change her life in a way she could never have predicted or imagined. The women came to her seeking refuge. What they teach her about forgiveness and redemption could only happen with a little bit of divine intervention and a whole lot of magic. The power of friendship, the strength and reinvention of the human spirit comes together in a most gripping and beautiful story where love can come through sadness and loss. Damaged souls can truly be restored like old houses long neglected. Travel from Brooklyn Heights to Ireland in Refuge. Keep the tissues nearby and prepare to be delighted.
