

The Burden of Gratitude: The Chronicles of Bayboro Correctional Facility II

Description of book: A highly entertaining dark comedy collection of five short stories, which will give you a profound knowledge about incarceration with the benefit of not being actually locked up. Based on the personal experience of the author, this book will take you on an abominably brilliant journey into the bowels of human misery and ignominy. A must read for everyone who wants to know what is happening behind the razor wires of penitentiaries. About the Author Bela Abel has lived over fifty years of an illustrious life. He has two academic degrees, four books, as well as more than one hundred articles and papers. His diverse experience has included one revolution, two citizenships, a lengthy imprisonment, and many long walks along the streets of New York, Moscow, Paris, Tokyo, and Rio. Ive soared over the top of the world and Ive been cast to the bottom of misery. Bela Abel. To read the interview of this author visit: www.BelaAbel.com
